Explanation of Dispute/Additional Information:

Disclosure Information: If we have provisionally credited your account, we have not been able to complete our investigation of the transaction in question within the time period provided by law. Therefore, we have credited your account for the amount in question while reserving the right to reverse the credit should we determine after the completion of our investigation that no error has occurred. Furthermore, if we determine that no error has occurred you will be notified of the date and amount of any debit we make to reverse the provisional credit. If we determine that an error has occurred, you will be notified that the provisional credit has been made final. In either event, we will complete our investigation within 45 days of your reporting the error to us; if it is a new account or the transaction was initiated outside the United States of America or was a result of a point-of-sale debit card transaction, we will complete our investigation within 90 days. If the claim was received verbally, it is required that you provide Consumers Federal Credit Union with your name, member number, card number, and a detailed description of the transaction(s) in writing within ten (10) business days of the date the dispute was initially submitted. . Please note that because the listed transaction(s) was (were) unauthorized, your card will be closed and a new card will not be issued until this investigation has concluded. Credit will NOT be issued if Consumers does not receive the claim in writing in addition to the verbal dispute.

I further state that the debit transaction(s) was/were not originated with fraudulent intent by me or any person acting in concert with me, I have not received any benefit from the transactions, and that the signature below is my own proper signature. I certify under penalty and perjury that the foregoing and all other statements made by me in this dispute is true and correct.
